

Some examples of key concepts in subjects

History

Civilisation, culture, empire, invasion, monarchy, tyranny, rebellion, oppression, democracy, politics, religion, society, community, taxation, source, evidence, chronology, royalty

Geography

Atmosphere, climate, continent, landform, terrain, environment, resources, biome, fertile, vegetation, settlement, population, region, trade, development, sustainability, diversity

R.E.

Beliefs, religions, ideologies, customs, artefacts, hierarchy, diocese, traditions, authority

Art

Dimensions, symmetry, accuracy, creativity, artists, genre, perspective, materials, design, drawing, painting, sculpture, technique, media, craft, sketch

Music

Language, history of music, creativity, expression, composition, performance, tempo, timbre, texture, structure, notation, control, fluency, singing, sound, play

Design Technology

Design, make, functional, products, quality, prototype, principles, nutrition, construction, properties, mechanics, ingredients, materials, components, systems, planning, sketch

Science

Methods, processes, forces, rational explanation, characteristics, terminology, nature, enquiry, patterns, classifying, data analysis, experimenting, structure

Computer Science

Principles, abstraction, logic, digital content, algorithms, data representation, information, technology, analysis, manipulation, programs, ranking, software, hardware, systems, responsibility

P.E.

Skills, flexibility, technique, challenge, control, teamwork, strategy, opposition, competence, physical activity, competition, accuracy, agility, co-ordination, tactics, performance

Citizenship and S.M.S.C.

Choices, right and wrong, needs, behaviour, opinions, debate, environment, money, personal hygiene, differences, similarities, emotions, health, well-being, identity, relationships, health, risk, diversity, equality, rights, change, power, democracy, human rights, rule of law