

Testimonials for Crossing the Transition Bridge – Seamless learning from primary to secondary school

- “Thank you so much for delivering such a wonderful course. I have been blown away by the quality of the resources, the knowledge of the trainer and the new learning for me.”
- “I am not sure what to expect but the online approach really worked well. I have so much to take away and use with my team.”
- “This course has been of great value, so much so that we asked Learning Cultures to continue to train our transition team virtually over the next three terms.”
- “If this is the future of training for teachers then I am all for it. It has been a rewarding and fulfilling experience for me and I have so much to share with my transition team.”
- “My perception of transition has changed. It is right that we only really think about the pastoral process. The messages from this course are so valuable and will have a definite impact on learning in year 7 and beyond.”
- “Thank you for a wonderful course. I am delighted with the resources and will be able to develop a CPD strategy for transition from the wealth of materials you have provided me with.”

This is the first series of these courses that we have run and we have had a huge amount of positive feedback from them. The opportunity for interaction is still there and the deep and valuable contribution from everyone that has been involved has helped to enrich the content.

Glynis Frater and Jayne North have designed this course and deliver it with great passion and a huge body of knowledge gained over several years.
