

Testimonials for Enhancing the Role of the Subject Leader

A ready-made training package to use to suit your CPD timetable

- Incredible value for money. This package has provided me with the opportunity to train all our Heads of Department and they have loads of materials to use with their teams
- Such a wealth of useful and highly researched information. I have so much to use in so many different ways
- Excellent programme, well laid out and easy to follow. The video presentations bring it alive for all of us. We can revisit some of the course material as many times as we want and that has been very helpful
- Amazing quality of resources and content. I have a small primary team of subject experts and we have found it invaluable and excellent value for money
- Time to reflect, time for discussion. This approach has been so useful. It is such value for money, we have enough for at least two terms CPD
- We have used this package to train our subject leaders and it has proved a great success. They can work at their own pace for some of it and come together albeit it virtually to share their ideas which has been very fruitful
- Thank you, this programme has given us the CPD we needed for our subject leaders. The quality of the resources and the variety of presentations means it has been a pleasure to use
- Altogether a thoroughly useful programme which we have used in a variety of way. Being able to dip into the different sections has been a bonus as individual subject leaders have different needs
- A comprehensive programme that has been a major piece of our CPD strategy. It has meant the work has already been done and everything we need is there.
